

NATIONAL AWARDS

MAD DADS has received dozens of local and national awards.
They include two Presidential Awards:

-The President's Volunteer Action Award-

Presented April 1994 by President Bill Clinton
White House Rose Garden Ceremony
Washington DC

-The 126th Thousand Point of Light Award-

Presented June 1990 by President George Bush
Omaha, Nebraska

OTHER DISTINGUISHED AWARDS

- United States Air Force Community Service Award, presented in Omaha, Nebraska May, 1999.
- April 1998 Washington DC: MAD DADS recognized by President Clinton's National Race Initiative as a National Promising Practice.
- The MAD DADS Organization was chosen by the National Advertising Council to kick-off the 1997 National Public Service Campaign entitled: WHOSE SIDE ARE YOU ON?
- Common Cause "PUBLIC SERVICE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD," awarded Washington DC June 1995.
- The 1995 "ESSENCE AWARD," awarded by Essence Magazine, Madison Square Garden, New York City, New York May 1995.
- The first annual "FAMILY LIFE AWARD," presented by Family Life Magazine, for commitment to family, November 1994.
- The "MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. MEMORIAL AWARD," awarded by the National Education Association (NEA) Washington DC May 1992.
- "CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION" for service to our nation's youth, awarded by Jack Kemp, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Omaha, Nebraska June 1992.

Hundreds of awards and certificates of appreciation have been awarded to individual MAD DAD Chapters, volunteers or projects across America.